

Electronic Technician

We are a contract electronic assembly house manufacturing a large variety of electronic assemblies for defense and industrial customers. Our products are standard CCA assemblies, thick film electronics and complete box builds.

Duties will include:

- Test and troubleshoot electronic PCB and hybrid assemblies
- Set-up and operate discreet electronic test equipment
- Operate custom customer supplied electronic test equipment
- Maintain calibration records for in-house electronic test equipment
- Operate & program environmental chambers
- Support and programming of automatic inspection equipment

Minimum AAS degree in Electronics and 3 years related experience. This is full time "A" shift position, US citizenship or permanent residency is required.